

Across

1. Russia called for an arms embargo saying they suspected the US of shipping weapons into _____.

4. After coming out of retirement, quarterback Brett Favre now plays for the NY _____.

6. Roger Federer and Novak Djokovic both played five-sets to reach the quarterfinals of the _____ Open.

7. Vice Presidential candidate Joe Biden represents Delaware in the Senate but grew up in Scranton, _____ (state abbr.).

8. The Treaty of _____, signed in 1783 by the US, Great Britain, Spain and France, officially ended the American Revolutionary War.

11. The first ATM opened to the public _____ 1969 at Chemical Bank in Rockville Center, NY.

12. _____ 'Diddy' Combs made a YouTube video complaining about the high price of fuel forcing him to fly commercial airlines rather than his private jet.

14. At the DNC in Denver, _____ (initials) became the first African-American nominee for president from a major party.

16. McCain reportedly cancelled an interview with _____'s Larry King because of an earlier network interview questioning his running-mate's experience.

17. Forecasters were unsure if Hurricane Hanna would hit the coast of _____ (state abbr.).

18. Scientists are looking at gene therapy in mice as a possible way to reduce hearing loss in humans by growing new _____ hairs.

19. A town in _____ (state abbr.) repealed a 1966 law prohibiting fortune telling for profit.

22. The political magazine _____ (abbr.) was founded by the late William F. Buckley to represent news and opinions of Conservatives.

24. Critics complain that some hastily built sections of border fence along the Mexican border with _____ (state abbr.) cause flooding along the border.

26. Family and friends gathered at the family's ranch in Texas to celebrate the 100th anniversary of former president _____'s (initials) birth on August 27, 2008.

28. Swimmer Kristie Coventry was given $100,000 by President Robert Mugabe for being the only Olympic medalist from _____.

29. Hundreds of students from Chicago Public Schools went to affluent suburban schools to ask to be allowed to enroll _____ to get equal funding at their own schools.

31. Oprah Winfrey taped a show featuring gold medalists that hopes to influence the _____ (abbr.) to choose Chicago for the 2016 Summer Olympics.

32. _____ LaFontaine, who died at the age of 68, was best-known for being the voice of movie trailers.

33. While New Orleans was spared the brunt of the storm, the area known as _____ country was hard-hit when Gustav made landfall.

Down

1. The _____ (abbr.) National Convention was pre-empted by Hurricane

2. _____ which stole the national media spotlight.

3. The international firefly population _____ decreasing with some saying urban growth is to blame.

4. After less than a year in office, Yasuo Fukuda resigned as Prime Minister of _____.

5. After a week of political protests erupted into street violence, Prime Minister Samak _____ declared a state of emergency in Bangkok.

9. The US military reached a milestone when they handed over control of the _____ province to Iraq.

10. After beating Virginia 52-7, _____ was back on top of the AP Polls.

13. By the _____ of his Labor Day weekend telethon, Jerry Lewis had raised a record $65 million for MDA.

15. With consumer price inflation at 37 percent in Cambodia, poor people cannot afford beef _____ other pricey meats so they're learning to cook field rats.

18. Officials say the torch relay for the 2012 Summer Olympics will not leave _____.

20. Sri Lankan officials said 37 were killed in new fighting with the rebel group, the _____ Tigers.

21. Actor Johnny Depp returned to _____ (state abbr.) for a reunion charity performance with his old band, The Kids.

23. Prairie dog populations as well as endangered ferrets are being threatened by plague in _____ (state abbr.).

25. Alaskan Governor Sarah _____ is the Republican vice presidential candidate.

27. Former candidates Rudy Giuliani, Mitt Romney and Mike Huckabee all spoke at the RNC to support former opponent _____ McCain for president.

30. Offensive Tackle Richard Collier, who was in critical condition after being shot outside an apartment complex, plays for the _____ (initials).

